Special Offering for Cemetery Cross

Sunday, May 25

Memorial Day is a time to of remembrance for those who have died while serving our country. It is also a time when we place flowers on the graves of our departed loved ones, so it seems appropriate that we have a special offering at Sunday worship services for the purchase of a solid brass cross to be hung inside the gazebo at the St. Pauli Cemetery.

Depending on the size, the price ranges from $1,500 - $1,700. If you are unable to attend services on the 25th, you may give your donation to a board member or mail it to SPCA, PO Box 944, Thief River Falls, MN 56701.

Norman Brenna

November 13, 1951 – April 17, 2025

Norman and Kathy are our St. Pauli Church neighbors.

Norman Otto Brenna, 73, of Thief River Falls, Minnesota, passed away peacefully at his home on April 17, 2025. A beloved husband, father, grandfather, and friend, Norman lived a life of quiet strength, generosity, and devotion to those he loved.

Norman was raised in Ulen, Minnesota, and graduated from Ulen High School in 1969. Following graduation, he proudly served in the United States Marine Corps until 1973, with time stationed in Japan. After his military service, he attained his Associate of Arts degree from Willmar Community College and his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Minnesota-Twin Cities.

He spent 30 years working for the Internal Revenue Service as an Agent, serving with integrity and professionalism until his retirement in 2007.

On June 3, 1983, Norman married Kathleen Martell. Together, they shared 41 years of love, laughter, and adventure. He was a longtime member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Plummer, where he served faithfully as treasurer for many years.

Norman loved to read and was rarely without a book in hand. He found joy in the simple pleasures—spending summer days outdoors watching birds, heading to the casino when he felt lucky (and returning when his luck ran out), and enjoying winters in Texas with Kathy. For the past 15 years, they spent those winters taking long walks, playing Mexican Train dominoes, and enjoying time with their close-knit group of Texan friends.

He treasured hunting trips with his son Erik. In earlier years, they were serious outings, but as time passed, Norman often left the gun behind, and the trips became more about enjoying the moment—and taking a nap—while Erik waited for the big buck to come their way.

He is survived by his loving wife of 41 years, Kathy; his children: Krista Brenna (Corey), Erik (Amy) Brenna, Jason Fimrite (Lorrie), and JaCinda (Scott) Degelder; grandchildren: Jordan, MacKenzie, Spencer, Jayde, Mya, Dawson, Abigail, Henry, and Daisy; and great-grandchild Steele. He is also survived by his sisters: Jean Hanson, Barb Schenck, and Randi Lloyd.

Norman was preceded in death by his parents, Norman and Delores Brenna.

Norman's legacy lives on in the memories held close and the quiet strength and humor he passed on to all who knew and loved him.

Funeral services for Norman were held 1:00 pm on Friday, April 25, 2025 at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Plummer, MN with Reverend Jonathan Dodson officiating. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service at the church on Friday.

Burial was held at Keene Cemetery in rural Ulen, MN.

Theresa L. (Terri) Torkelson

February 5, 1930 – March 25, 2025

Terri was married to Marion Torkelson and was a sister-in-law to current St. Pauli members Wally Torkelson and Faye Auchenpaugh.

Theresa (Terri) Torkelson was born February 5, 1930, in Carrollville, Wisconsin, to Elpidio and Enidine (Lopez) Lara. Her parents, along with her two eldest siblings, Salvadore and Carmen, had emigrated from Mexico in 1927 in search of better opportunities. Elpidio immediately found work at the Peter Cooper Glue Company, a major employer in Carrollville, where various industries had established operations considered too noxious for more populated areas. The company made glue and gelatin from animal remnants and provided modest frame homes for its employees for a small fee. The Lara family made their home on High Street.

Carrollville was a vibrant community of immigrants—Armenians, Slavs, Czechs, Hungarians, Hispanics, a single Chinese family, and one Black family—each bringing their own language and culture. Terri recalled that her older siblings initially struggled with English, but thanks to a resourceful teacher who incorporated bits of Russian, Polish, and Spanish into her lessons, they quickly adapted. Soon, English became the common language of playgrounds and friendships.

Terri attended the Carrollville elementary school, where teachers commuted daily from Milwaukee, braving the cold in high heels and fur-trimmed coats. Among her classmates was a person who sat right next to her: Ted Guerard, a French speaker whose family had moved there from Brooks, Minnesota and who would later become her brother-in-law. Terri graduated from South Milwaukee High School in 1948 and immediately took a job in the office at Peter Cooper in Carrollville. (In 1955, the Carrollville area was incorporated into the City of Oak Creek.)

It was through a coworker that Terri first saw a photo of Marion Torkelson, a friend of her coworker's boyfriend. Terri remarked that she “wouldn't mind going out with him,” and soon after, the two met at a Bucyrus Erie company picnic, where Marion was employed. Their courtship led to plans for a fall wedding, but when a labor strike at Bucyrus Erie began, Marion and friends decided to seek work in the Alaska Territory (it wouldn't become a state until 1959) where Marion's Aunt Pauline had written there were jobs to be had in the construction business. Terri's father insisted they marry before she joined Marion in this venture, and so they wed on April 1, 1950.

The newlyweds, along with friends Ferdie Finstad and two Oklee natives, embarked on a memorable eight-day journey to Alaska via the snowy, rugged Alcan Highway. Terri would say, “I went on my honeymoon with four guys!” Facing frozen vehicles and frigid temperatures as low as -60°F, they eventually reached Fairbanks—only to find another strike had halted construction work. Moving on to Anchorage, they both found employment at Elmendorf Air Force Base and spent a year in Alaska before returning to Milwaukee.

Their daughter, Brenda Kay, was born on December 26, 1952. In August 1953, a tragic car accident left Terri seriously injured, with paralyzed vocal cords. After extensive therapy, she regained the ability to speak, starting with a whisper that gradually strengthened but she never did regain her full voice.

Terri enjoyed a long career, first with Peter Cooper Company in Carrollville, WI, Elmendorf AFB in Anchorage, AL, Line Material in Cudahy, WI, and later with the South Milwaukee school district, working for the parks department and school operations until her retirement in 1993. In 1967, Terri and Marion welcomed their second child, Steven Lara.

Marion passed away on September 28, 1998. Terri passed away on March 25, 2025, leaving behind a legacy of resilience, kindness, and devotion.

Terri is survived by her children, Brenda and Steven (Georolyn); her grandson, Geoffrey; her brother, Maurice; and her in-laws: Wallace Torkelson, Faye Auchenpaugh, and Pamela Kittridge. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Frances Marion; her parents, Elpidio and Enidine Lara; siblings Salvatore, Carmen, Gayle, and Walter; her parents-in-law, Melvin and Helen Torkelson, and in-laws Geraldine Guerard, Willis Torkelson, Marvin Torkelson, Wahna Smith, and Ivette Garrett.

Funeral services were held on March 31, 2025, at Trinity Lutheran Church, South Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Field Trip to Waukon Dairy

On April 7th, 24 church members and friends chartered a bus and toured the Waukon Dairy near Gary, MN. The dairy milks almost 10,000 cows daily and has 45 full-time employees. They buy feed, including corn, corn silage, straw and alfalfa from farmers within five miles of the dairy and by-products such as distillers' grain and soybean meal from area processors.

The cows are not stanchioned when not being milked and have free access to feed. The bedding is all recycled in a fascinating process that extracts all of the liquid.

The cows produce 7,000 gallons of milk daily, which is hauled in nine semi-tractor trailers to Bongards Creamery in Perham, MN, where it is primarily turned into cheese. (Next field trip?)

On the way home, we stopped for lunch at Erickson's Smokehouse Restaurant in Fertile and made a quick stop at Opdahl's to buy homemade donuts and cookies.

Chad has done it AGAIN!

Both the Pennington/Red Lake Junior and Pennington/Mower Senior Poultry teams took first place at the Poultry Project Bowl regional contest in Bemidji on March 29. They then advanced to compete against the top Poultry Project Bowl teams from across Minnesota at the state contest in Sauk Rapids on April 12.

The Pennington/Red Lake Junior team took 4th place.

The Pennington/Mower Senior team took first place and are now back-to-back State Champions!

Introducing... KEVIN'S KORNER

A new monthly feature!

It is the idea of St. Pauli newsletter editor, Faye, to start this column in the newsletter. I think it became an idea after supplying chocolate chip cookies following a worship service during "Chocolate Chip Cookie" week. I foresee it to include a variety of commentary from "Tried, Tasted, and Approved" recipes to short stories. And I am open to suggestions.

Many of you may know the story of how Sheila and I became involved with St. Pauli but in case you do not, let me use this first submission to inform you. Prior to 2023 I did provide pulpit supply one Sunday. I do not remember how that first time became a reality.

In 2023 when Pastor Carl indicated he would like to have one Sunday a month off, I was contacted by then-council-president Jim Strandlie. Jim and I had become acquainted through the Lions clubs. I assume I had made a good impression on Jim. I hope he wasn't just reaching out in desperation, HAHA. Jim asked if I would be willing to provide pulpit supply once a month.

Because of my past assistance at Bethany and Black River, both of Red Lake Falls, I said yes. I thought it would be a good experience.

I remember after worship one Sunday Jim said, "I want to talk to you." I thought, "Did I do something unacceptable? Was someone else found to help with worship?"

It was then that I was made aware Pastor Carl had made it known of his intent to retire. In short, Jim asked if I would be willing to lead worship on a regular basis? I said I would have to consider the proposal.

It was only a few days until I let Jim know I would try. He said, "Kevin, we will draft an agreement for you to sign." Then I began to question my response. Did I want to sign an agreement? Is this more detailed and a greater commitment than I wanted?

Once I received the agreement, however, I thought, "This is rather simple, not real binding, and certainly favorable to both parties," and therefore I signed the agreement.

Time has spanned more than two years since we made the agreement, and I am still leading worship on a frequent basis for you wonderful folks at St. Pauli. It is a commitment and requires some devotion, but I am truly enjoying the experience. It is not considered to be a job or burden for me in any fashion. It is very fulfilling and rewarding.

I thank you for the many favorable comments, unending support, and extended love in Jesus' love. Until we meet again, God's blessings to you

(Next month's "Korner" will include the chocolate chip cookie recipe.)

Editor's Note: Actually, it wasn't the cookies that got me on this path, because I was in Florida that Sunday and missed them. It was, in fact, the following that I thought was too good not to share with everyone.

(Kevin usually discloses something unique during announcements—and sometimes these involve Sheila.)

One recent Sunday, Kevin said that Sheila had asked him if he would like some Cream of Wheat for breakfast. "Sure!" he said.

When he was served and began eating, he said, "This Cream of Wheat has lumps in it." Sheila replied, "Well, you said you never minded a few lumps."

Kevin said, "But these are like dumplings!"

We all had a good laugh.

The next Sunday, Myles Alberg told Sheila he had looked all over in Hugo's grocery store for "Cream of Wheat with Dumplings" but couldn't find the box anywhere.

Not missing a beat, Sheila responded, "You have to look in the specialty section."

And now Kevin is a formal member of St. Pauli Church

The church council received Kevin's request for transfer from Bethany Lutheran in Red Lake Falls and formally approved his membership in St. Pauli Lutheran Church.

On Sunday, April 27th, we welcomed Kevin as a member and presented him with a small gift and cake from the congregation.

Beautifying the St. Pauli Cemetery

Wahna Smith's children donated all of her memorial funds to the St. Pauli Cemetery to be used for a 14' x 22' gazebo (see illustration below). The gazebo will be situated at the center of far north side directly facing the driveway. The cost of the concrete pad will be paid for with cemetery funds and memorial funds for Ivette Garrett and Marv Torkelson, but there are many additional opportunities to donate toward or give in memory of a loved one. (Order form on the next page.)

St. Pauli Cemetery Association (SPCA) will attach and pay for all memorial markers to ensure they are all similar. Donors have the choice of what is said on the markers, within character limitations.

BENCHES: Four benches total: two 4' for the east and west (shorter) sides and two 6' for the two openings on the north side. These are commercial-grade, powder-coated, steel park benches, bolted to the concrete. Prices include shipping and installation. Two benches have already been spoken for.

CROSS: A solid brass cross for mounting on the inside of the north center post. We will hold a special offering for this cross during worship services on Sunday, May 25 (Memorial weekend), but other donations will be accepted. When the gazebo is in place, we will determine the DISPLAY CASES: Two cases needed. One case will contain a map of the cemetery with a QR code that connects to the cemetery map on St. Pauli's website. There are links for the genealogy of almost all of those buried here. The second case will contain a history of the church, with a listing of charter members, noting those who are buried at the St. Pauli Cemetery.
